

~~THURSDAY, 18.~~ 30.

1867: 74

Wrote to John V. and Mazie. Letter from Mazie. Mary went to Newark to spend the day with Aunt Sue. Received Boy's Herald.

Thursday, 31. (2) (October, 1.)

Looking over old papers, Mary and Aunt Sue came in the evening. Mamma continues in middling health, Bayard Mrs. Kelly and Mary Berins called in the evening.

October, ~~Thursday~~ <sup>Friday</sup>, ~~Friday~~, 71. (2.)

Bayard, rowed his race to day. Mary and Aunt-Sue went to Bath. They returned in the evening. Bayard met them in the cars. He came in with them. Stayed a short while and he and I went over to the Herald office. Returning I met Gitterton and had a talk with him on base ball.

~~Friday~~, <sup>Saturday</sup> Saturday, 2nd, (3)

To the Park. Saw Nameless - Massan game. Name, 4 Mass, 7, Played half an inning with the Winonsas. Aunt Sue returned to Newark. Mailed letters to John B. and Mazie.

Sunday, ~~Sunday~~, 3rd. (4)

Wrote part of a letter to Aunt Jennie. Got up late. Went to ten o'clock mass. Sermon by a priest with a low voice. Sullivan & Lynch called.

Monday, ~~FRIDAY~~, 19. 4. (5.)

Looking over papers. Bayard called. Went with him to the Hameloss Club Rooms. Played billiards. General Bousso and a Capt. Feely called in the evening.

Tuesday, 5. (6.9)

Spent the morning playing billiards and arranging letters. In the afternoon went with Bayard and Dick to Bath. Prepared our own supper and enjoyed it very much. Passed a very pleasant night. Retired at three. I slept on a sofa. Felt cold and uncomfortable. Had for covering papa's old coats.

Wednesday, 6. (7)

Bayard left in the morning. Dick and I went to the city in the afternoon. I left him on Flatbush Ave. To the Park to see a game of ball. Winonas vs. Baisys. W 17 to 12. Very disagreeable rowdy on the ground. Felt very much like pitting him two or three good cracks. Endeavored to catch the 626 dummy. Missed it and walked to Bath. Rained during all the journey. Arrived at our house in Bath wet and uncomfortable. Played cards with Johnnie and Susie Kate's girl. till after twelve.

Thursday, ~~SATURDAY~~, 20. 7th (8)

Left my bed at half past one in the afternoon. Arranging papers till near eight when I had supper. Raining hard. To Big Mates. Played cards. Back to the papers. To bed at 2 o'clock. A stormy day.

Friday, 8th (9)

Still in Bath. I have made a mistake in dates. I gave September more days than ~~Saturday~~ she needed.

Writing to Aunt Jer. Back to Brooklyn. Missed the dummy and walked to Fort Hamilton. Found Mamma no better. R. H. S. and myself to Brook's. Mr. and Mrs. Williams played to crowded houses. Home at 2.

Saturday, 10.

To the Nameliss Club Rooms. Saw B. B. With him to N. Y. Met R. H. S. and G. A. Lynch. Spent a pleasant afternoon in N. Y. Home. Playing Cards. Bed.

Sunday, 11.

At nine o'clock Mass. Elliott of Newark called. Walked with him in Brooklyn. Mamma about the same.

Monday, 12

Read Kent and played cards. Wrote to Haldiman. Mary Henson
Mrs. Tague now called. Made for home to avoid rain.