

~~August~~ February Fri MONDAY, 19. day 2nd

1867.

Bayard said my story appears today. Two columns long. Big bill this week 27.70. I am coming up in the world. Last week was a hard week plenty of work. Rainy day. Think I was engaged at something but perhaps not. To see Clara Morris in Miss Multron. Great crowd. I got a poor seat in the gallery but enjoyed the play exceedingly. Morris is a great actor. Walked from the theatre <sup>to</sup> 134th St. & bed by 11.

Saturday 3rd to Herald office. Sent with Fitzpatrick to interview bankers on Campbell & Kelly's side next. Sent a letter to Belle Sullivan to day, or yesterday. Loafed in the office doing nothing. I paid Fitzpatrick yesterday $2.96 and Bayard $4.17. Visited Mary Robt at Mrs. O'Brien's. Walked with her to Union Square theatre. She went to see Clara Morris in Miss Maudslowi. Recd. a letter from Aunt Mary asking me to send her card in post. Wrote Ed.

Sunday 4th

20 Papa's office then to me. Herald. Sent to "City Missions" Found Bayard there. Detailed to report murder of a wife by a husband. Collected facts and then had to turn over the matter to a Mr. Roche. In the evening arrived at the East-side stations. Got through about one or half past one o'clock. Took supper with Bayard. Eat heartily. Tomorrow I am to buy a new hat & intend to share the old I have now worn for a year and which is very bad.

Monday 5th

Mary, <sup>Robt</sup> spent last night here. She came into my room and we had a long talk. She is going to board at Badger's also Papa. Mary was down to see Papa at Bath yesterday. She found him broken up house keeping on Friday. Mary Harris on has left for good. I am sorry. To Mrs. Burns Mary & 5 Aunt to see her niece. <sup>did not see Mary A. She was visiting</sup> Spent some time there, took dinner. Met Johnnie who had come the girls trunk from Bath. Wrote an article on "Factions in a class". <sup>To Mary's</sup> Spent early evening with Mary & P.

Tuesday 6th

<sup>Robt</sup> Mary came in and talked to me. Change in the City Editorships. Chambers retires and Meighan takes his place. Fitzpatrick in the latter's shoes. Went to see about wires of "Geo. Washington". Met J. D. Carmichael and Edna Mulrany in the street. The former pretended to be pleased the latter was inefficient. Rewrote an article on "Freight Rates". On night duty and to the different police stations downtown. To Badgers about 3.

Wednesday 7th

Mary Rob came into my room in the morning. We had quite a chat. In the <sup>morning</sup> office saw Papa. Had very little to do at the Herald office till the evening. With Fitzpatrick to a meeting house where girls wait on the table and everything is clean. My money small. In the evening to a Temperance meeting in Pike St. to Badger's about 10 1/2. Spent the evening with Mary Rob. about 11 1/2. Papa hunting around for something to eat. He felt fine.

Thursday 8th

Late breakfast about 11. To Papa's office then to Herald office. Looped all day. At night sent to Union League Meeting. Before going, to Badger, had supper for the 1st time. Mary had not returned from Newark. To Papa's office, then to Union League Club. Wrote a short account. Saw Brasher and Charles. WEDNESDAY. 21. Harvey, Fitzpatrick, very indisposas usual. <sup>to Badger</sup> ~~to~~ arranged things, to bed after 2 o'clock. Wrote postal cards to Belle Sullivan, Mumf-

Friday 9th

Up about 10 1/2. Spent the morning & until 1 with Aunt Mary and Mary Pol. Had not seen the former since she left Bath. Talked with Papa. He spent last night at Bath. Called at Franklin Ave. house and saw Mary Harrison. She was pleased to see me. To New York to the office recd. 27.15 for last week's work. Up town and bought 2 tickets for our Boundary House for Mary Harrison. To Franklin Ave. then to Bath by way of Port Hamilton. Place looks drab

Saturday 10th

Yesterday recd. letter from Uncle William. Got up quite late about eleven or twelve o'clock. Johnnie Hornet brought in my breakfast - while I was in bed. Susie down during the day. Spent the afternoon reading and fixing up things in my rooms. In the evening John and I to Farnell's where we stayed playing billiards and cards till after twelve. I spent a few dollars. The place looks very dreary and desolate. Mary Harrison gave life to the house.

Sunday 11th

Up late. To Brooklyn in the afternoon after long wait at the dummy station. To Herald. They wanted to know where I had been. On night duty. To Budgers in the wee small hours. All quiet in the Potomac.
