1846

House cleaning. Looking over old papers. Played cards in the evening. Had a slight quarrel with Mary Harrison. Aunt Mary from Williamsburg with Sam and Jennie McC.

Thursday 8th

Unwell all day. Eat very little. House cleaning. I played base ball in the evening. Received a letter from W. J. Florence. Besides the letter there was a card for three seats at Wallacks June 10th. The writing ran "for Friday, June 10th" it should have been June 9th as the 10th falls on a Saturday. Home and to bed early. Mary Harrison and Hornet to Bath Park. Papa also went. The Park opened to day. A large crowd there.

Friday 9th

Still unwell. Eat very little. For breakfast and dinner. To Brooklyn on 126 Dummy. Called on R. N. S. 751 Lincoln Place. Found him at home. Extended him an invitation to visit Wallacks to see the Florences in the Night, Dollar. Together we called on Titus in Wall St and asked him to form one of our party. Dick and I to Brooklyn played billiards then to his house where they awaited us. We had a nice supper. Then we went to New York in a coach and drove in style ~~TUESDAY~~ to the theatre. We enjoyed the play very much arrived in a little late went out once between acts played billiards when the piece was over intended to hire a coach down again but price was too high by Third Ave. car to City Hall caught two o'clock boat by Fulton St. car to Sixth Ave. walked to Lincoln Place bread butter and champagne cider to bed about 4 the daylight appearing and cocks crowing.

Saturday, 10th

Titus first up by 8. He left about 9 1/2. Then I arose. Dick soon after appeared. We had a nice dinner. I borrowed a dollar and saw the Florences again. Both Mr. and Mrs. Florence play very well the characters suit them. They are tolerably well supported. Back to Dick's. I was told he was out I think he was in. Home on 5 1/2 Dummy. Mary Harrison and Hornet out in the evening. To bed early.

Sunday 11

Mary Harrison and I become reconciled. To 8 Mass. Passed the day, quietly. Played cards with M. H. Friend Hornet on his ear.

Monday, 12th

Looking over old papers. House cleaning resumed. Mary Harrison quite sick. I tried to ~~WEDNESDAY, 5~~ make myself useful.

Tuesday, 13th

In the evening I called on Mr. and Mrs. Kersten. The condition of the latter very pitiable. They intend leaving America in a day or two. I met Miss Sonisa Waters. She invited me to call again. Looking over old papers. I have thrown away any number. Posted letter to Mr. H. H. Winifred Harrison.

Wednesday, 14th

Spent all the day looking over papers, talking to Mary H., and arranging things. In the evening there was rain. I walked up to Wrights. Bought one or two articles. Brought home a letter to sister and aunt.

Thursday, 15th

Copus Christi. I did not go to church. Spent the day in the house.

Friday 16th

Nothing important. Have let too long a time to go by without writing. A boat the Flora is running to Bath. Kate's husband away, and sent this time. Kate cleaning house.

Saturday, 17th

Ventured out with the intention of calling on Miss S. Waters. Found she was working in the fields so postponed my visit. In the evening
