The following is a copy of a diary kept by me in 1867 when I was about eleven years old. The original is partly in a small diary and the rest on curious slips of paper which I have found in a box which I used in 1867 at Seton Hall College but which for years remained unopened. I was quite young when the diary WEDNESDAY, 8 was written and my life was uneventful as can easily be seen by perusal of DIARY FOR 1867 - As it was written.

Jan. 1. I had a very pleasant time to day. Papa gave me this today. Mr. Hardy gave me three dollars.
Wed. 2. Willie Hardy came to see me to day. Papa, me, Mary, Gramma, Mrs. parmar all went to see Hooleys.
Thur. 3 To day I went to a oyster saloon and after that I took a glass of Soda water. To day I came back to school again.
Fri. 4 I cried all last night. And when I got up this morning I felt an awful headach and it continued all through the day. I forgot to mention that it was Mr. Carroll who that brought me down on the 3. I had no room to tell that I did not eat anything except the things which mama brought for me. And also that I went and put 15 Dollars in the dime saving bank on Thursday.
Sat. 5 Today I ate the last of the things which mama sent me. I did not eat any things for breakfast or dinner but I ate something for my supper. I have nothing more to say at present.
Sun. 6 Today we had a snow fight between our side and a band of robbers our side had only nine boys while the robbers had
