

March,

Wednesday MONDAY, 15.

1897.74.

Studies.

Thursday, 16.

Village.

Friday, 17.

~~Ball.~~ Rain. To the village after supper. J. Fies, old student, up.

Saturday, 18.

Ball. Meeting of Alerts. Reorganization. Meeting satisfactory.

Sunday, 19.

Early mass. Game. Our side beaten 29 to 26. Bad play.

Monday, 20.

Rain. Letter from Bayard. Paper from Papa.

Tuesday, 21.

Better discharge. ~~at~~ Condition of diary but determined to fight a little longer.

Ball. Letters from Mary, Papa, and Bayard.

Wednesday, 22.

Myself and Gross delegates to the Amateur Base Ball Convention. Saw Papa in Brooklyn. Papa looking badly. No one but little Sue at home. Left the Convention before anything important was done. Returned to College on the half past nine o'clock train.

THURSDAY, 23.

Raining. To the village three times. Had much to do and did not do it.

Friday, 24.

Ball. Letter from ~~Papa~~ Paper from Bayard.

Saturday, 25.

Rain Snow Sleet. Half way to the village with umbrella. Near drowned.

Sunday, 26.

Ordinations. Spent afternoon in the village. Too windy to play ball.

Monday, 27.

Recreation. Beautiful day. Long walk in the morning. Ball in the morning and afternoon. Longino's played the Quicksips. To won. Headache in evening.

Tuesday, 28.

Usually our easy day. Father James gone mad. Rushing us through a great deal of matter. Snowing!!!

Wednesday, 29th.

Felt ^{bad} poor! Headache! My poor nose received a knock some time ago. My poor nose! It is growing bigger hence my ill ^{ness} ~~feel~~ hence my headache.

Thursday, 30.

Nose worse. Feeling horrid. To infirmary. Uncle William up. I have an abscess. He cauterizes it. I feel better.

WEDNESDAY, 30.

Friday, 31.

Still in infirmary. Letter from Aunt Ann. Good times. Toast &c.

MAY, Saturday, 1st.

Windy. Feeling better. Slept over here.

Sunday, 2nd.

To early mass. Playing ball. To village.

Monday, 3rd.

Preparing for examination to-morrow.

Tuesday, 4th.

Passed well. ~~Re~~ Monsieur Lefebvre one of the examiners.

Wednesday, 5th.

Recreation. Ball.

Thursday, 6th.

Game between Arlingtons and Alerts. Alerts 27 Arling. 57. I did not play in other words I was shooed off the nine.

Friday, 7th.

Written examination in Balances. Mailed a long letter to A... & D... n.

Saturday, 8th.

Writing Analysis of Ethics.