

March,

Saturday, THURSDAY, 28.

1867. 74.

Letter from Bayard. Fine day. Playing ball.

Sunday, 29.

Mass very long. Played my first game of ball in 1874. Our side defeated. Score 24 to 10. Short game: about an hour and a half.

Monday, 30.

Letter from Bayard. Weather pleasant a little ~~rain~~ ^{wind} but sunshine also. Reading Shakespeare. Letter from Wm. Lynch.

Tuesday, 31.

Nothing.

April,

Wednesday, 1.

Letter from M... & answered it. Good game of ball. Festival. Spent pleasant morning.

Thursday, 2.

I think it was today that I received letter from Aunt Ann.

Friday, 3.

Ball. Yesterday or today heard from papa.

Saturday, 4th.

Cold. Snowing slightly yesterday and today. Asked for Father James to go home today. Long discussion and a refusal. Very angry. I am to go tomorrow. Sidning up of Lent-

Sunday, FRIDAY, 5.

Fine in the morning very cold in the afternoon. Played ball. Slept till boys were in breakfast. After ten o'clock mass started for home. ~~Went~~ Arrived in Newark no train for New York till seven o'clock. To New York on top of stage. Very cold. Stopped at halfway house. As we drove up a fire. All ~~burnt~~ out. Only a mattress burnt and walls damaged by water. Reached home about half past five. All glad to see me. Mary and Bayard came in about half past seven.

Monday, 6.

Day fine. Passed a quiet and pleasant day. In afternoon visited by Norman Mellies J. M. Lutz Dr. Mr. and Mrs. ^{and others} Williams. In the evening saw Mr. and Mrs. Williams at Conway's Brooklyn Theatre. House crowded. Fairy Circle and Customs of the Country. Mr. and Mrs. Williams acting splendidly.

Tuesday, 7th.

Up at five to bed again till six. Left house about half past six. All asleep. Arrived in So. Orange about fifteen minutes past eight. Examination in Philosophy. Passed well. Wrote to M... & Am writing to Aunt J. n. Postal cards to Ch. Y. Clipper and p... a. Disagreeable morning pleasant afternoon lovely evening.

Wednesday, SATURDAY, 8th.

Disagreeable morning. It is not raining but everything looks damp. The sky is clouded. First day in Ethics. Letter from Bayard.

Thursday, 9.

Rain in morning. To the village. Letter from A. J. n.

Friday, 10th.

Writing to Aunt J. n. Rain in torrents. Postal card to Bayard.

Saturday, 11th.

Wind high. Snow in evening. High wind at night. Mailed letter to A. J. n.

Sunday, 12th.

Early mass. Bayard came up in horse car from Newark. Two dollars worth of fine cigars and a number of papers. Spent day with me. came up to play ball but wind too high. Left in six o'clock car for Newark. Said he enjoyed himself although I could think of nothing pleasant.

Monday, 13.

Very pleasant day. Ground having become frosted the sun changed the hard earth into mud. Letter from Bayard. Finished Philosophy.

Tuesday, 14.

Pleasant morning. Nice afternoon. Ball. Letter from Mary. Paper from Bayard.