THURSDAY, 8th

1867.

do not think there was any court news. In the evening to Newark. Bayard gave me his picture. Wrote to Belle and Miss Moorhead yesterday. To Newark on the 8.35 train as well as I can recollect. Arrived there I found besides the family, Mary, Belle and Pauline Sullivan and a Mr. Creamer their cousin. Belle pleased to see me. She had received the letter and the one to Miss R. V. M. care of her. She had not had time to deliver the latter. She was quite pleasant. Pauline had a cold. Their cousin a tall and rather nice looking fellow. They stayed till quite late. We had something to eat about 11. We passed the time pleasantly. George & Belle at a good terms. Bed and slept soundly.

Friday 9th

Up by 7 1/2 an unusual hour. Had to be called a number of times and afraid of displeasing uncle by my late hours. George & I saw Mary to the car. There we found Belle with an older cousin a queer customer. Mary off & anxious to be but Belle persuaded us to escort her to the house where she was stopping. We did so through the rain. She then wanted us to come in. I would not. Pauline appeared on the stoop and foolishness followed. George & I with an umbrella through heavy rain to No. 505. To New York. Waiting at the Court. My week's bill amounted to about $20. On night duty, through rain & mud I travelled around the police stations. Home late and wet & sick.

Saturday, ~~FRIDAY~~ 10th

Bought a ticket for Mary some days ago to see the Danicheffs at the Union Square Theatre. She went today. Last night helped Bayard to write an account of the New York Yacht Club. Wrote several small Court items for the Herald none of any account. I have not seen any large cases since I have been up there. I think Papa and Mary spent the evening with Mrs. Williams. On night duty. I believe the day was quite agreeable.

Sunday, 11th

To the Court quite late as a matter of course. Became interested in one of Bret Hart's yarns in the ~~the~~ Sun, and did not realize where I was till past the street where the Court house is. In the evening I went to St. Francis Xavier's church to see Father Merrick in relation to the recent panic in the church. He is a small nervous man and as always befalls me the conversation gradually turned to religion & I was advised to go to confession.

Monday, 12th

one or two small cases in Court. To Newark in the evening out on the 7.15 train. Mary there also Belle & Pauline Sullivan who had not left Newark since Thursday. Mary & I to see Miss Kate Snid, a nice looking girl with a pleasing manner. Then a short time back to Aunt Sue's & then to the Sullivans' cousins where we spent sometime. I did not over enjoy my self. Back to No. 505 and bed. Slept well.

Tuesday, ~~SATURDAY~~, 13th

Last night Mary, Pauline & I acted disgracefully on the street laughing running &c. It was raining. Rain today also. Up early again. To see Belle & Pauline with George. I was anxious to get away early, but they kept us & Comy chapin determined to go to the city with us. George would not stay behind & I did not want to hurt anyone's feelings though I was troubled about my leaving so late. Minding I must have to take the pigs I hurried them off. The four of us to New York tripping through the mud &c. Left them in a 4th Ave. Car. George & I in 3rd Ave. car. George & I changed our minds & I left him at the Sullivans. After Court was through I called for him while there I received a very nice letter from Miss R. V. M. Down to the Herald office. Refused a job to the Asher House with George. Dinner & then to 22nd St. for Mary. To the Park Theatre to see our Boarding House, a popular play. Mary & I enjoyed ourselves. George did not. My second visit to the play. To the Sullivans house all dark. Dysters at Sullivan Henry & 10th Adams. George & I in a very narrow bed.

Wednesday, 14th

George & I breakfasted. I then saw him off. Recd. kind letter from G. L. On night duty. Several items in the Court line. Troubled by a crazy lawyer about a Court case. A while ago troubled by another lawyer about the Unsectarian Home Bureau.
