

Writing in the morning fishing with Geo and Will in the afternoon. Geo became seasick and the rest of the crew became sick of the fishing we had but poor luck. In the evening I was introduced to two young ladies. I spent some hours in the company of Geo and Miss Pauline. Saw a ludicrous scene. Two ardent-lovers about six indulged in a hugging and kissing farce. As they passed Geo Will Harriet and I gave them a cheer. Yesterday or day before rec'd letter from Mrs. V. Lamarche. He makes no decent excuse for his long silence.

Wednesday 5th

We are having real warm weather. A day or two ago I heard with surprise and regret the news of the death of Miss Mary Syde who died in April. She always treated me well and when I called upon her last October she seemed well pleased to meet me again. Poor Mr. Williams said she was the only girl he ever knew of who brought me to her knees. This was because I spent the afternoon in her company. To Brooklyn. To see A. Mc Neely again. Reached his house. He was out. I talked to his wife daughter and father smoked a great deal. Told the young girl I was engaged to a Miss Elvise Rondell described her looks and indulged in much nonsense till Mc Neely came home. I was given $70 dollars in cash. Bought some root beer - it was bad sarsaparilla in a <sup>new</sup> dress. Was shaved. Home. Spent the evening with the Misses Sullivan.

Thursday 6th

To Kenner. Saw Dada. Gave him the $70. He handed me $10 back for my trouble. Kind as! ~~SATURDAY~~. Took dinner with him. Saw Uncle William spent over an hour in his house. Home. Bought straw hat, took some root beer most of which I spit out; indulged in Ottawa beer which was quite nice and bought some tobacco and other little things. Very pleasant evening. Papa to Mr. Williams. Mr. Sprague lost an our look of Geo. and Will's boat. Yesterday wrote or more properly mailed a letter to Miss R. V. Moorhead. I wrote it in the 3rd.

Friday 7th

Rec'd a note from Miss Moorhead. It came inside a letter written to Miss Sullivan. Spent part of the evening with the Misses Sullivan. Wrote to Mc Neely acknowledging receipt of $70 to Maggie and to Mrs. V. Lamarche.

Saturday 8th

To South Amboy in yacht "Lottie B." Two hours going over six coming back. Played a three hours game in the burning sun the hottest day of the season so the papers say. Arrived home about half past one. Expected to pass the evening on the stoop. My Aunt Mary, class the shutters I called to her and she came down and let me in. No more sailing for me. Have had all I want for some years.
