

July, August

Saturday, MONDAY, 1. 26th

1876

Great sensation. Two ladies drowning Miss Marks + Miss Stewart. The latter saved herself. I and Geo. rescued the latter. All the ladies say, they will kiss me.

Sunday 27th

Uncle down also Miss Fredberg. She gave me her picture. It is middling. She left in the evening. While pretending to be asleep I received a pleasing gift from Miss Belle. Thru Mary back. Received congratulations for my feat.

Monday, 28th

Played base ball in the field with George and Will. Played croquet with Mr. S. Marks, Miss Batterson, the Misses Sullivan and George. Miss Batterson threatened to kiss me for my share in Saturday's adventures but did not carry out her intention. She made up however in kindness to me. She was quite attentive to me all day. She ornamented my hat and buttonholes with flowers and gave me side glances and kind flattering words. She in fact flirted with me in a most open original and punny manner. Bathing quite dangerous in the afternoon. Geo. and I in. Miss Marks and Miss Stewart both congratulated me. They still show signs of fatigue. Uncle away early. None of the ladies has kissed me as yet. On Saturday, I received a letter of thanks from Miss Marks. She is a lady of about 26, quiet in manner, dresses plainly, and has rather pleasing looks.

TUESDAY, 29th

Spent the most of the evening with Miss Batterson. Gus Backus and others on our bank. Quite a talk with Miss Batterson.

Wednesday 30th

Played croquet. In the evening walked with Mary, George and the Sullivans to the Hotel and back. Great scandal next door. Big talk by everybody: also great mist-morning every thing damp.

Thursday 31st

Passed a stupid day in the summer house with Miss B. + P. Sullivan. In the evening Miss B., the Misses Sullivan, Rockfellow, Dan. Kelly, and Solomon sang talked danced &c. in our parlor. I was on the porch.

Saturday 2nd

Played the Winona's of Flatbush. Union's 11 Winona's 13. Ten innings. Bad play by myself and others. Met Jas. McKelley. He has browned much. Miss Fredberg down till Monday. Dan Kelly, Solomon + Misses Sull. here. The O'Gorman's off. I miss the boys greatly. Geo. did not like leaving.

Sunday WEDNESDAY, 3. 30

Mr. Florence, Sothorn and Linda Sieltz were here. Mary and the the Misses Sullivan + Fredberg to Mrs. Williams. Miss Batterson was speaking a short time to me. Walked around, talked to Emma T., + to bed.

Tuesday 5th

Mr. and Mrs. Todd's last day. Played croquet with Miss Belle. Copied some letters or rather a long letter. Mary and I spent the evening in Backus's. First time in a long while for me. I spent a not over pleasant evening.

Wednesday 6th

Wrote most of the day. Copying letters into a book. Played ball. Miss Marks left. Her farewell to me "Good by. May you ever be happy. God bless you." Solomon here.

Thursday 7th

Geo. Hoey and Mary, Berins married. Mary Rob one of the witnesses. She says that Miss B. looked pretty. The ceremony was short. The couple stay at the Windsor Hotel. No sun shine to day. Cloudy and threatening rain. I wrote most of the day in my journal or note book. Walked + talked in the evening.
